

PREPARATION FOR SUNDAY NIGHT STUDY
A STUDY OF PROVERBS
July 19, 2009

If you desire to participate in the study of the Book of Proverbs which begins tonight, please answer the following questions and fill out this form. You will NOT be asked to turn in your form. It is for you.

The purpose of this form is to assist you in being able to profit from the study. The Book of Proverbs is a collection of pithy, short and sharp statements from God, primarily through Solomon, but also from other writers. We must study Proverbs by topics to gain the maximum benefit for ourselves. In Proverbs, God has given us short, but deep answers, to many of our questions and desires.

Each of us has varying degrees of interest in different topics and are more motivated to learn about those topics. Your willingness to take a few minutes this afternoon and complete this form will greatly enhance your opportunity to gain great personal benefits from this study which begins tonight.

QUESTIONS

(Please answer each question with a “yes” or “no.” This is personal and important, but just for you.)

1. Do you believe God’s Word?
2. Do you believe God has provided answers in His Word to your questions and desires?
3. Will you spend time and effort to find God’s answers to your questions and desires?
4. Will you apply God’s answers in your life to your questions and desires?

QUESTIONS AND DESIRES

Please list your most important and urgent questions and strongest desires. Again, this is for you. No one else will see or know what you list unless you choose to share this with others.
